O God

I believe

First Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

In seeking a King for the Israelites, Samuel traveled to Jesse of Bethlehem, who had seven sons. Commanded by God to ignore the elder sons, Samuel anointed the youngest, David.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14

Paul exhorts the Ephesians to live as "children of light" in goodness and truth and to avoid evil deeds "done in darkness."

Gospel: John 9:1-41

Jesus performs the miracle of giving sight to the man born blind. Because Jesus performed this miracle on the Sabbath, the Pharisees called him a "sinner," but the blind man said, "He is a prophet." Jesus later reveals to the blind man that He is the Son of Man.

SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

Fulfilling the Works of Mercy for each of us is a lifelong commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Matthew 25:32-46 tells us that when we feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, take care of the sick, and visit the imprisoned, we care for Christ himself.

"Put your hope in the Lord.
Take courage and be strong."

Psalm 26:14

Catholic Relief Services Speaker St Paul Inside the Walls

On Monday, April 4, St. Paul Inside the Walls will host the Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Speaker Tour – Behold: Peace in the Holy Land – The Parents Circle-Families Forum.

The presentation begins, following 7:00pm Mass, at 7:30pm.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Saint Paul gives us a wake-up call. As stewards of the light of Christ, we are to reflect that light with the help of the Holy Spirit. If Christ's work has transformed and illuminated our lives, there should be a change. The light of Christ's active presence should be at work in us. And as the light shines within us, we take on the properties of that light and we shine too. We are used by God to shine the light of Christ in the lives of others.

A challenging Lenten reflection:

- Is the light of Christ shining in our hearts?
- Is the light of Christ reflecting out from us to others?

POPE BENEDICT XVI MESSAGE FOR LENT

"You were buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him." (cf. Col 2: 12)

The Sunday of the man born blind presents Christ as the light of the world. The Gospel confronts each one of us with the question: "Do you believe in the Son of man?" "Lord, I believe!" (Jn 9: 35. 38), the man born blind joyfully exclaims, giving voice to all believers. The miracle of this healing is a sign that Christ wants not only to give us sight, but also open our interior vision, so that our faith may become ever deeper and we may recognize him as our only Savior. He illuminates all that is dark in life and leads men and women to live as "children of the light".

OPERATION RICE BOWL

See As God Sees

In today's Gospel, Jesus recognizes the blind man as one who has been made in God's image and likeness. Jesus demonstrated God's goodness to all by healing the blind man. By giving to Catholic Relief Services' Operation Rice Bowl, we support health programs in Honduras and around the world, which continue the healing work of Jesus and demonstrate God's love for all of our human family.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Failure to forgive blinds us to another's goodness. Lent provides an opportunity to wash away our blind-spots in the pool of forgiveness. Listen to Jesus in today's gospel: "Go wash and see."

Prayer for the Victims of Japan's Earthquake and Tsunami

Our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, has asked Catholics worldwide to continue praying for the victims of Japan's tragic earthquake and tsunami.

Merciful and loving Father,

We see the devastation wrought by Japan's recent earthquake and tsunami.

We are overwhelmed by the enormity and destruction.

We pray for the victims and their families, and for all who have suffered because of this terrible calamity;

that they may feel your comfort and the healing power of your presence.

We ask that your Spirit continue to strengthen the rescue workers and medical personnel;

that their tireless efforts may yet be rewarded

as they labor to assist the courageous Japanese people.

We ask that this terrible event may be an occasion to open our own hearts to your compassion, and make us more generous instruments of your mercy.

And through this tragedy, we pray that nations and people everywhere be moved toward a more global solidarity and peace.

We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen.
