Tornado Recovery Collection

In response to the widespread tornado and flooding damage across the southeastern United States, dioceses around the country are taking up a special "Tornado Recovery Collection" to "help those in need and the Church that has been severely affected by these disasters".

Funds from this Collection will be used to support the efforts of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and Catholic Charities USA to respond to immediate emergency needs of the Church in the areas affected for such necessities as water, food, shelter and medical care, as well as to the long term need to rebuild after widespread destruction.

If you wish to make a contribution to this Collection, please send your offering to the Parish Office or place it in the collection basket, with an appropriate note "Tornado Recovery Collection" on the check or envelope that you will use, and Saint Catherine's will then send a parish check to the diocesan Finance Office.

Did you know...that children younger than Kindergarten are always free?

A Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar

In today's gospel Jesus prepared his disciples for his departure. Family life is a series of departures. As we mature and grow older we constantly transition from the familiar to the new unknown. Today Jesus assures us we are not alone in these transitions. "I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you."

SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

"Whatever you do for the least of my brothers and sisters, you do for me."

Matthew 25:40

Donations to the cents collection (loose coins and dollar bills) on Sunday, May 29, will be given to the Women and Children Development Organization, a non-profit and non-government organization that supports the efforts of Sister Livina Gill, a Dominican nun, to save children from slavery in Pakistan. Sr. Livina's ten centers provide food and education to fourteen hundred children, promoting peace and vocational training to improve their future lives.

Is. 14:30 "In my pastures the poor shall eat, and the needy lie down in safety."

BLESSED POPE JOHN PAUL II

'What the World Needs'

On Vatican Television on Friday (last month), Jesuit Father Federico Lombardi, director of the Vatican press office, reflected on John Paul's life and 26-year pontificate, "characterized by the passion to make known to the world in which he lived — the world of our tragic history in the course of two millennia — the consoling and enthusiastic greatness of God's mercy.

"This is what the world needs," Father Lombardi said. "That is why we will have the joy of celebrating the solemn beatification on the day in which he himself wanted the whole Church to fix her gaze and prayer on this Divine Mercy."

Preparations are under way to move the mortal remains of John Paul from the main level of St. Peter's Basilica from its present site below the basilica, a mausoleum that houses tombs from the first centuries of the Church.

"It is still impressive to see the number of pilgrims who make a special trip down to the crypt to pray at the tomb of John Paul II," said Fr. Joe. "Many who stop to pray there then get up to leave and walk right past the site of the resting place of the mortal remains of St. Peter under the main altar.

"I often think that St. Peter and Pope John Paul II are sharing a laugh in heaven over this imbalance in interest and devotion! The new resting place for Pope John Paul II will be between the statue of the Pieta by Michelangelo and the Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament. This is very appropriate because of Pope John Paul II's love of the Eucharist and of Mary."

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's gospel we go back in time to listen to Jesus as he gives instructions at the Last Supper. His words speak to all of us as he is preparing us to be sent out into the world to proclaim his Good News. The gift of the Holy Spirit is poured out upon the entire community of faith to do this work, not just a few. No one is to be excluded.

- Are we inclusive of everyone in our community?
- Are there those we choose to exclude because we don't like them?

UNSEEN STEWARDS

Did you ever notice...

that the Music books and Prayer cards, located in the pews, seem to be straightened out each week as if by magic?

Actually, it is the work of a dedicated group of parishioners who attend Mass on Monday mornings (and throughout the week). They arrive early or stay after to make sure the Church is ready to go for Mass as well as funerals, weddings, school liturgies others special occasions.

Eucharistic

Adoration

June 3, 2011
Noon to Midnight

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration is the adoration of Jesus Christ present in the Holy Eucharist. In the many Churches that have this adoration, the Eucharist is displayed in a special holder called a monstrance, and people come to pray and worship Jesus continually throughout the day and often the night. Christ's great love for us was shown when he was crucified to pay the penalty for our sins and give us eternal life. He loves us without limit, and offers Himself to us in the Holy sacrament of the Eucharist. Can we not give Jesus a few minutes of love and adoration in return?
