RESPECT LIFE

"Nobody is a nobody: nobody is unwanted. All are wanted by God, and therefore to be respected, protected and cherished by us." This is a concise summary of our pro-life beliefs by Fr. Richard Neuhaus.

CONCLUSION OF SPIRITUAL ADOPTION ENDEAVOR

Last October the Respect Life Committee initiated a nine month daily prayer campaign to save the lives of unborn babies who were in danger of being aborted. Participants pledged to say a simple prayer each day for a newly conceived, unknown baby and its parents. The normal gestation period concludes during this month of July. Hopefully, many babies have been born to fulfill their part in God's plan for them. Thank you for performing this gracious spiritual work of mercy. We continue to pray that an appreciation of the culture of life will spread in our country.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Women and Children Development Organization a non-profit and non-government organization that supports the efforts of Sister Livina Gill, a Dominican nun, to save children from slavery in Pakistan. Sr. Livina's ten centers provide food and education to fourteen hundred children, promoting peace and vocational training to improve their future lives.

Along the ways they shall find pasture, on every bare height shall their pastures be. They shall not hunger or thirst, nor shall the scorching wind or the sun strike them; for He who pities them leads them and guides them beside springs of water.

A New Translation of the Roman Missal

A CONTINUING COLUMN

The Greeting ("The Lord be with you...")

One of the most noticeable changes in the Mass parts will be the people's response to the greeting, "And with your spirit." It reflects the Latin text of the Mass and the biblical language of Saint Paul (Galatians 6:18; Philippians 4:23; 2 Timothy 4:22). It acknowledges the Holy Spirit's activity through the priest during the sacred liturgy. It is not just expressing an exchange of personal greetings: "May the Lord be with you, too, Father." It is Jesus who is the head of the community gathered for Mass, and it is Jesus' Holy Spirit who is the primary actor in the liturgy regardless of who the priest celebrant may be. It is the people asking the Lord to shower his gifts upon the spirit of the priest, so that he may help to build us up into one body. This greeting and response, as our U.S. Bishops Committee on Divine Worship states, "more directly reflects the biblical understanding that, through Baptism, the Spirit of God dwells in us and unites us as one Body in Christ."

Next Week: Words in the Roman Missal

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's reading from the prophet Isaiah, there is a guarantee that the unleashing of God's Word will bear much fruitfulness in the world. The Word of God will accomplish whatever God sends it forth to do. His Word is given to us as a gift to be nurtured, shared and made to "bear fruit." The question is whether or not we are exercising good stewardship over God's Word.

- Have we been "fruitful" with God's Word?
- Have we unleashed God's Word?
- Do we share God's Word or do we leave that task to others?

A Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar

The stress and anxieties of family life are like "thorns which choke off" any opportunity to reflect on God's presence in our lives. Notice in today's gospel Jesus "left the house" so He could connect with His Father. Grasp five minutes each day to appreciate God walking with you.

MISSION COOPERATIVE COLLECTION

Father Gavin Atkins, OSFS, a native of South Africa, will be at our parish next weekend in order to make a mission appeal on behalf of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales.

The Oblates, based upon Salesian spirituality and fraternal love, believing in the value of prayer that is both personal and supportive, and in the right and duty of each Oblate to use his personal talents for the good of the Church, are called to spread among the People of God, the spirit and doctrine of St. Francis de Sales.

As Christian humanists, the Oblates believe in the dignity, worth and responsible liberty of each person and they try to approach each person in a gentle and humble way, while fostering peace and justice in the world community. They value participation in Christian Education, Missions, and

Stewardship Saint of the Month

Blessed Kateri Teckakwitha is the first Native American to have been beatified. Born in 1656 on the south bank of the Mohawk River near Auriesville, New York, Tekakwitha was the daughter of a non-Christian Mohawk chieftain and an Algonquin mother who was a Catholic convert, educated and baptized by French missionaries.

When Teckakwitha was four years old, a smallpox epidemic claimed the lives of her parents and baby brother. She survived the disease but her face was left severely scarred and her eyesight impaired.

At age 20, after having taken religious instruction at a nearby mission, Teckakwitha was baptized and given the name Kateri (Katherine). She vowed not to marry, which was considered aberrant in her tribal culture and created great difficulties for her. Kateri was persecuted by her fellow villagers for her faith.

A year later, finding the persecution unbearable, Kateri fled her village and walked 200 miles through forests, rivers and swamps to settle in a Christian mission in Sault St. Louis, near Montreal.

The remainder of her young life was dedicated to prayer and devotion to the Eucharist, teaching children at the mission and caring for the sick and the elderly. She died of an illness in 1680 when she was 24 years old.

A profound commitment to stewardship is revealed in a quote attributed to Kateri:

I am not my own; I have given myself to Jesus. He must be my only love. The state of helpless poverty that may befall me if I do not marry does not frighten me. All I need is a little food and a few pieces of clothing. With the work of my hands I shall always earn what is necessary and what is left over I'll give to my relatives and to the poor. If I should become sick and unable to work, then I shall be like the Lord on the cross. He will have mercy on me and help me, I am sure.

Kateri is known as the "Lily of the Mohawks" and devotion to her is responsible for establishing Native American ministries in Catholic churches throughout the United States and Canada.

She was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1980 and her feast day is July 14.
