FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ✦ JANUARY 29, 2012

REGULAR SCHEDULE OF MASSES

Monday - Friday	7:45am
Saturday	9:00am & 5:00pm
Sunday	7:30am, 9:00am & 11:00am
Reconciliation:	Sat. 4-4:45pm or by appt.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet's words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in his words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority he had over the spirit.

Catholic Schools

Catholic Schools Week:
January 29 – February 5

2012

Come to our Open House

An Open House will be held on Sunday, January 29, 2012, from 11:15 a.m. until 2:15 p.m. Registration for the 2012-2013 school year will be held on Monday, January 30, and Tuesday, January 31, from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the School Library.

Catholic Schools Week

This year's theme focuses on three priorities that Catholic schools establish that make them stand out from other educational institutions. Children are taught faith – not just the basics of Christianity, but how to have a relationship with God. Academics, which in Catholic schools are held to very high standards, help each child reach his or her potential. Service, the giving of one's time and effort to help others, is taught both as an expression of faith and good citizenship.

RESPECT LIFE: Spiritual Adoption

Fourth Month

Thank you for praying for me. I'm bigger and stronger now. I'm about 6 inches long and weigh 4 ounces. When mommy goes to the doctor, she can even listen to my heartbeat! I hope that one day I will run and play with friends like you.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

by Bud Ozar

Today's gospel reminds us "unclean spirits" still haunt our families. These "spirits" thrive inside our grudges, punishing silence, impatience and abruptness. Today Jesus offers you the "authority" to cast out these spirits from your life and your family.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel we hear proclaimed the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. He teaches. He heals. All are amazed. By their baptism, Christian stewards realize they are called to do the same in their lives. They are called to be the light of Christ each day. As we bring closure to the beginning of this new year, now is a good time to ask the Lord to fill our hearts with courage and faith, so that we too may publicly minister in his name; that we may be liberated from our insecurities and fear so that we can share the Gospel authoritatively and work to heal at least one wounded relationship in the coming months ahead.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

"Faith must be accompanied by charity, charity that unites us all with one another and with Christ. It must be accompanied by charity that, under the inspiration and motion of the Divine Spirit, welds the members of the Mystical Body together by an unbreakable bond."

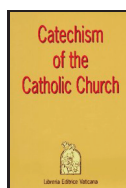

Pope Pius XII

The cents collection (loose change and dollar bills placed in the collection basket) for Sunday, January 29, will be donated to Eva's Village in Paterson, a non-profit social service organization dedicated to fighting homelessness and poverty. The mission of Eva's Village is "to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, treat the addicted and provide medical and dental care to the poor with respect for the human dignity of each individual."

FROM THE CATECHISM

A day of grace and rest from work

2184 Just as God "rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done," human life has a rhythm of work and rest. The institution of the Lord's Day helps everyone enjoy adequate rest and leisure to cultivate their familial, cultural, social, and religious lives.

Please Remember in Your Prayers:

All those in our parish who are sick or infirm;

Joseph Montemarano, Christopher Schmitt, Jonathan Dean, Joseph Sanders, Ray Wilhelm, Mary Moese, Jenny Takter, Johnny Talkter, Brandon Riffard, Josephine Myshkoff, Jeanne Marino, Tim Conway, Joe & Anita Picolo, and Charlotte Smith.

If you would like to add a sick or infirm loved one to our prayer list, please call the Rectory Office (973) 962-7032. This prayer list will be cleared at the end of each month or upon notification to the office. If you wish to renew your request call or email Blair at scobsecretary@optonline.net and we will be happy to continue our prayers.
